

Drumheller, Alberta is the home to “Hoodoo’s” (you’ll have to google it) and the World’s Largest Dinosaur! It is also home to one of the biggest radio signals in Canada, which just happens to have a rare opening. Q Country, Q91 has an opening in afternoons and is on the hunt for our next superstar. But... before you email your resume... do you fit the following criteria?

- You have to know your country music better than anyone.
- You gotta have the smarts and maturity to cover all topics, the good, the bad, the ugly, the political, the humorous, the insane, the emotional...things we deal with everyday as human beings.
- You must be real and honest with your audience.
- You must be committed to charitable work and public appearances.
- You must see the side of life most other people miss.
- You have an incredible work ethic on and off the air.
- You should have a background in archeology (just kidding)

Q91 in Drumheller has been part of the “Badlands” since 1958 and is an integral part of the community. If you’d love to live in one of the coolest looking communities in Alberta, then get your stuff to us right away.

Deadline for applicants is Tuesday, January 31st, 2012

Email your:

- cover letter
- resume with references
- demo mp3

to awhite@newcap.ca

No phone calls please.

Abbey White
Program Director
KG Country 95.5 FM - Red Deer
Q91 - Drumheller
Q 105-7 FM - Brooks
Q14 - Stettler
Mountain Radio – Blairmore

“Newcap Radio is an Equal Opportunity Employer”